

County, West Virginia; died October 8, 1892, at Point Pleasant, Mason County, West Virginia. On December 25, 1849, at Leon, Mason County, West Virginia, he was married to MARY LOVEL THORNTON who was born April 17, 1825, in Botetourt County, Virginia; died September 6, 1895, at Leon, Mason County, West Virginia; she was the daughter of Edward Thornton and Elizabeth Wright. Lewis Greenlee moved with his father to Indiana and settled on the Wabash river, near Terre Haute. The land being low and swampy, fever set in and his father became discouraged and moved back to West Virginia. Lewis went to work on the Ohio river as a boatman and remained at this work for some time, making several trips as far as Cairo, Illinois. After his marriage he commenced farming and continued it for the remainder of his life. He was a Republican and a Baptist.
